

Section 5.3 Vice-Chair of Professional Activities

Objectives: IEEE is the world’s largest professional association advancing innovation and technological excellence for the benefit of humanity. IEEE is the trusted “voice” for engineering, computing and technology information around the globe. Being technically proficient is only part of what makes an individual become successful in the ever-changing global economy and advancing technology. Increasingly, organizations are beginning to recognize the added benefits of improving their employees’ professional development (non-technical contributing to members’ careers) skills and are providing training for that purpose. This is the need of the day recognized by IEEE focusing on industry relations and practitioners. The primary objective of Professional Activities (PA) of the IEEE Region 10 is to promote the professional interests of its members, as well as provide a mechanism for communicating members’ views on their professional needs. To facilitate this, the Professional Activities Committee in partnership with various IEEE sections, conduct programs of relevance for professional development of its members. The Vice Chair of Professional Activities Committee (PAC) through the relevant R10 Coordinators interacts with the Industry in the region to provide a platform for networking and member engagement.
