- Section Highlights

  The Section had a successful year in spite of the onset of Covid-19. While face-to-face meetings in the Section became impossible, the Section and its chapters, groups, branches and communities used online meetings to run a large number of meetings and events: https://r10.ieee.org/victorian/past-events/

  In total one hundred and seventy three (173) activities were reported on VTools. These included administrative as well as member-focused events.

  Ninety seven (97) of these were member-focused technical, professional or social events.

  The highlight was the virtual IEEE Symposium on Data Analytics and Internet of Things (ISDAIOT 2020) which ran from September 29, 2020 to November 19, 2020. The Symposium includes diverse sessions including technical talks, workshops, poster competitions, and panel discussions to promote the use of Data Analytics and IoT Technologies for real-time applications. A total of 31 talks were organised in this Symposium.

- Major Events (International, National)

  Nil.

- Major Chapter Activities

  There were two outstanding chapters - Power and Energy which held eleven (11) technical events and one (1) professional one. The Computational Intelligence Chapter was a part of the ISDAIOT 2020 and ran thirteen (13) technical events.

  Our largest chapters, Computer and ComSoc, held six (6) and eight (8) technical events during the year.

- Major Student and Affinity Group Activities

  2020 was a difficult year for some student branches because overseas enrollment numbers fell and because of the suspension of on-campus activities. However the University of Melbourne Student Branch and its WIE Affinity Group were outstanding because they held twenty five (25) events. Monash University held nine (9) events. The WIE held six (6) events. Our student branches were also active participants in the programming competition IEEE Xtreme.

- Awards
The Section awarded the Volunteer of the Year to Dr. Priya Rani and the Student Volunteer of the Year went to Noor E Karishma Shaik. Both were key organisers for ISDAIOT 2020. Vijay Paul from the Victorian Section was awarded the 2020 MGA Young Professionals Achievement Award.

PART C - OTHERS

C.1 Special Events

• Please briefly describe the importance of special events and the outcomes achieved:

  The IEEE Symposium on Data Analytics and Internet of Things (ISDAIOT 2020) was an initiative to have a large scale symposium run virtually and distributed over 4 months.

• Funding secured from the IEEE and external sources including sponsorship:
  normal IEEE rebate and sponsorship by societies and groups of their groups in the Section

C.2 Relationship with National and International Societies and Non-Government Organizations (NGO)

• Nature of relationship and details of any formal agreement signed: none by the Section but IEEE Headquarters signed a co-operation agreement with Engineers Australia in 2017.
• Details of joint activities : no technical co-operation
• Benefit to IEEE members (for example discounts, access to technical information etc.): none to our knowledge
• Benefit to Section (for example help in membership development, venue facilities, cost saving etc.): none to our knowledge

C.3 Collaboration with other IEEE Sections

• Support extended to neighboring Sections:
  Since all events were held online, notice of these were sent to other Section in Australia to publicize events.
• Joint activities with any other Section: Chapters share DL and some other events

C.4 Support extended to Sub-sections & Society Chapters within the Section
• Support extended for organising technical, educational and professional activities:
  Financial sponsorship
• Joint activities for membership development:
  All carried out by individual chapters
• Support extended for the formation of a Sub-section or transition of a Sub-section into a full Section:
  Revival of dormant Tasmanian Sub-Section was achieved in 2020

C.5 Best Practices of your Section (which you would like to share with other Sections for the benefits of members)
  Weekly email eNews listing upcoming events appears to be the preferred way members would like to receive updates on upcoming events.

C.6 Problems anticipated and suggestions for solutions, if any Succession planning has mixed results - while excellent energetic people volunteer, this only happens in a few areas. Succession planning could be elevated as a key metric and perhaps acknowledged if it is carried out successfully by a Section and its sub-units.

  There also seems to be lower attendance at virtual meetings - people are tired of virtual meetings - face-to-face events and hands on training may be a solution to counter waning attendance.

PART D - GOALS AND PLANS

D.1 Continuation of project/activity in progress and their implementation plans
  The Section is continuing to support sub-unit events. It is also re-implementing competitions and awards - a best paper competition will comment this month (April).

D.2 Goals and Future Plans
  If face-to-face activities were to resume then workshop and practical technology demonstrations can restart.

D.3 Any innovative ideas to make IEEE more creative and value added for sustaining the membership retention and recruitment goals.
  Hand-on training kits in various areas of technology - Sections could purchase these

  Covid-19 has led to an operating surplus in the short-term so there is no financial hardship at present. In the long-term running workshops and conferences will probably be successful financially.
