IEEE R10 Awards & Recognitions Committee

Introduction

IEEE Region 10 (R10) has established through its Bylaws the Awards & Recognition Committee and commissioned it to assist the Region in recognizing, rewarding and promoting excellence in all facets of the professional lives of its members.

The Committee is responsible for conducting programs which provides the means to recognize the individual or collective efforts of the membership in promoting the interests of IEEE as reflected in the operation of R10 and its entities. Functions and Composition of the Committee are described in this manual. Descriptions of all R10 awards coordinated by the Committee are also assembled.

Functions

- Develop and implement awards and recognition program and procedures designed for sponsorship specifically by R10.
- Serve as an action body within R10, relating to various awards and recognition programs within the IEEE, and act as an information source on them.
- Represent R10 on the MGA Awards & Recognition Committee.
- Develop and implement suitable documentation of awards and recognition presented by R10.
- Develop procedures for publicizing the availability of awards and recognitions within the IEEE; actively encourage the Sections to nominate members for all appropriate awards and provide such assistance may be necessary for accurate, timely and professional nominations and assist in affording appropriate media exposure to awardees.
- Develop budgeting procedures for R10 awards and serve as a resource on various funding processes as may be available and permitted in support of the awards programs.

Composition

- The R10 Awards & Recognition Committee Chair is appointed by the R10 Director.
- The Committee should consist of not less than two members appointed by the Awards & Recognition Committee Chair and endorsed by the R10 Director.

List of R10 Awards and Recognition Program

R10 Outstanding Large, Medium and Small Section Award - to recognize the excellent work of the Section in the prior year (Annex A).

R10 Best Membership Growth Large, Medium, Small Section Award - to recognize the excellent work of the Section in the prior year (Annex A).

R10 Best Membership Retention Large, Medium, Small Section Award - to recognize the excellent work of the Section in the prior year (Annex A).

R10 Outstanding Volunteer Award - to recognize the excellent work and contribution of outstanding volunteer to the Section (Annex B).

R10 Humanitarian Technology Activities Outstanding Volunteer Award – to inspire scientists and engineers to become socially responsible and be engaged in developing technological solutions to improve living conditions and livelihood of people thus making a difference in peoples’ lives in a cost effective and sustainable manner (Annex C).

R10 Humanitarian Technology Activities Outstanding Section Award – to recognize the Sections who have done outstanding work in identifying social issues and made efforts to solve those issues through the use of technology or any other means (Annex D).

R10 WIE Outstanding Professional/ Student Volunteer Award - to recognize individuals who have exhibited exemplary and substantive leadership of an extraordinary nature in implementing activities which support the visions of IEEE WIE and R10 WIE, at the local, regional, national, and/or international level (Annex E).

Submission of Annual Section Report by the time of R10 Annual Meeting (usually held in late February or early March)

Basis of Selection

The R10 Outstanding Large/ Medium/ Small Section Awards are selected based on the Annual Section Report submitted to R10.

The following aspects and activities in the prior year would be considered in selecting the Outstanding Large/Medium / Small Sections:

- Submission of the Annual Section Report by the time of R10 Annual Meeting;
- Evidence of Retention and Growth of members and active Young Professional, Women in Engineering and Life Member Affinity Groups;
- Active Student Branch activity such as student paper contest, recruitment of student members;
- Continuing Educational activities including conferences, technical activities, training courses;

- Contacts with section members including the number of Newsletter issues email Newsletters, regular updates of Section, Chapters and Student Branches Web Page and via other social media;
- Community projects/service that project positive visibility to IEEE;
- No Section may receive two R10 Outstanding Large/ Medium/ Small Section Awards within three years.

Selection Committee:

The R10 Awards & Recognition Committee headed by its chair, reviews the submitted section reports, selects and endorses the recipients for approval by the R10 Director. The decision of the R10 Awards & Recognition Committee as approved by the R10 Director is final.

Award Instrument

An award plaque and a cash prize of US$ 1,000 will be awarded to the award recipient.

Presentation

Award will be presented to the attending Section Chair or representative at the R10 Annual General Meeting.

Record

The R10 Awards & Recognition Committee Chair maintains a record of award recipients on the R10 Web page.

R10 Outstanding Volunteer Award

Introduction

IEEE Region 10 recognizes and values the important role of members as volunteers to promote the IEEE objectives in the region. It is the sustained hard work of the volunteers that makes a Section vibrant and beneficial to its members and attracts new members. It is important that these dedicated volunteers are encouraged to excel in their efforts and be recognised for their contributions. This acknowledgement also serves to promote examples for others to follow, which in turn helps Sections to flourish.

Purpose

The R10 Outstanding Volunteer Award aims to recognize those volunteers who have made outstanding contributions to a particular Region 10 Section.

Scope

Based on the merit of each candidate, the R10 Awards & Recognition Committee may decide on the number of winners for the prevailing contest year. If no candidate is found to be suitable, no award will be given in that year.

Eligibility

- An IEEE member of any membership grade in good standing.
- The candidate's volunteer work is, or has been, on behalf of a Section. The candidate must have been active for at least 2 years in the Section and is not currently the Section Chair.
- The candidate receives no remuneration for his/her volunteer work for the Section except reimbursement of expenses incurred in carrying out the volunteer work.
- The incumbent R10 Awards & Recognition Committee Chair, Director and Secretary, and the immediate past R10 Director are not eligible for the Award.
- Previous winners of the R10 Outstanding Volunteer Award are not eligible.

Nomination Conditions

The Nomination Form must be completed by a Proposer and a Seconder who are familiar with the work and contribution of the candidate. Both Proposer and Seconder must be IEEE members of any membership grade. The nominations must be made through the Section Chair, who must endorse and sign the Nomination Form (the Chairperson may also act as Proposer or Seconder).

Nominations must be received by the IEEE Region 10 Awards & Recognition Committee Chair by the due date in electronic means (pdf file). Make sure that an acknowledgement is received after sending the completed form, or it should be assumed that the submission is not received.

A section shall not put forward more than one candidate at any one time.

Basis of Selection

The following points will be considered in the selection:

- New ideas, developments or projects, which have significantly benefited the Section
- Length of service to the Section. (Note: It is not a condition that the candidate is working for the Section at the time he/she is nominated)
- Demonstrated administrative abilities
- Demonstrated leadership skills
- Support for the work of other volunteers who are serving the Section
- Furthering the work and promoting the objectives of the IEEE and of Region 10 in general, and of the Section in particular at Section, Chapter or Student Branch level, or in some other IEEE volunteer activity.

Selection Committee

The R10 Awards & Recognition Committee headed by its chair, reviews the submitted nominations, selects and endorses the recipients for approval by the R10 Director. The decision of the R10 Awards & Recognition Committee as approved by the R10 Director is final.

Schedule

- Call for Nominations: 21 March 2022
- Nomination Deadline: 20 May 2022
- Evaluation period: 1 June to 31 July 2022
- Recipient Notified: By 30 September 2022

Award Instrument

An award plaque will be awarded to the Winner.

One-year IEEE Membership fee (basic membership only) will be subsidized by R10 for the award winner.

Presentation

Award will be presented to the attending Section Chair or representative at the R10 Annual General Meeting. Section shall then arrange to present the award to the award recipient(s) at an appropriate local Section event/ occasion.

If the award recipient(s) wish to receive the award during the R10 annual general meeting on self-funding basis, it is possible to present the award directly to them, subject to R10's approval.

Record

The IEEE R10 ARC Chair notifies the result of selection by email to the R10 Sections, on the R10 Website and R10 Newsletter.

The IEEE R10 ARC Chair also maintains a record of award recipients on the R10 Website.

R10 Young Professionals Outstanding Volunteer Award

(One award each for Academician and Industry Practitioner)

Introduction

IEEE Region 10 places very high priority to assist Young Professionals in their early career by creating opportunities to network, refine and plan their career goals, and learn soft skills to boost their chance for success. IEEE Region 10 recognizes the vital role that volunteers play in the realization of these objectives and has launched Region 10 Young Professionals Outstanding Volunteer Award to motivate and recognize the efforts and achievements of Young Professionals who have made substantial contributions towards their professional field through volunteering for IEEE. The award will be conferred upon two categories namely, (1) academia and (2) industry. One winner per category will be chosen, considering the substantive projects and achievements of the candidates which have left an undeniable imprint.

Purpose

The purpose of this award is to encourage the high-spirited volunteerism and contributions of individuals and showcase their initiatives that have benefited academia/industry.

Scope

Based on the merit of candidates the Region 10 Young Professionals Awards Committee will select one winner in each category (academia and industry) for the contest year. If no candidate is found to be suitable in a category, no award will be given in that category for the contest year.

Eligibility

- The nominee should be a IEEE Young Professional Member and should be residing within the geography of IEEE Region 10.
- The nominee should be from academia/industry at the time of nomination and professional working in industry/academia for more than three (3) years.
- The nominee should have contributed to IEEE Young Professionals as a volunteer for at least three (3) years.
- The nominee should have made substantial contributions to the activities of Young Professionals in Section and/or Region 10, which have directed to the fulfillment of one or more of the goals of Region 10 and/or MGA Young Professionals. The activity mentioned will be considered only if it is reported in the official reporting system via vTools Events.

- The nominee should not have received the same award in the past three (3) years.
- The following officers from Region 10 Young Professionals Committee cannot be nominated for the award; Region 10 Young Professionals Committee Chair, Region 10 Young Professionals Information Management & Communications Coordinator, Region 10 Young Professionals Awards & Recognition Coordinators, Region 10 Young Professionals Media and Marketing Lead and Region 10 Young Professionals Webmaster.

Nomination Conditions

- Self Nominations are not allowed.
- The Nominations can be made by any IEEE Young Professional Member (except for Student members) along with the endorsement by the nominee's respective Section's Young Professionals Chair or Section Chair, Vice-chair or Secretary or Treasurer.
- Any one individual cannot be both a nominee and an endorser or a nominator and an endorser. The nominations and endorsement must come from different individuals.
- The nomination should be submitted via the R10 Young Professionals Awards Submission Portal with the following steps.
 - Step 1: Complete the nomination form
 - Step 2: Request endorsement.
 - Step 3: Review, confirm and submit

Basis of Selection

The following points will be considered in the selection:

- Nominee's contributions that created an impact and added value to the membership of IEEE Young Professionals with respect to,
 - Leadership abilities and achievements.
 - Professional activities conducted.
 - Collaborative activities conducted.
 - Efforts taken to expand the sectional/regional/global network of IEEE Young Professionals.
 - Activities conducted on Student to Young Professional member elevation.
- The long-standing impact of the activity or activities organized by the nominee towards the goals of IEEE MGA Young Professionals and/or Region 10 Young Professionals.
- Efforts taken by the nominee to increase the value of IEEE and/or towards career development of Young Professionals in his/her field (Academia/Industry).

Selection Committee

The Region 10 Young Professionals Awards Committee is composed of at least six (6) members for coordination, execution, processing, and selection of award recipients. The awards committee reserves the right to present no award if the committee is not satisfied with the standard or quality of entries received. R10 Young Professionals Outstanding Section Affinity Group Awards

Introduction

IEEE Region 10 places very high priority to assist Young Professionals in their early career by creating opportunities to network, refine and plan their career goals, and learn soft skills to boost their chance for success. Region 10 encourages and financially supports Young Professional Affinity Groups in the region to conduct activities beneficial to the members and realize Region 10 objectives. Region 10 has launched the Region 10 Young Professionals Outstanding Section Affinity Group Award to motivate and recognize the efforts and achievements of Young Professionals Affinity Groups. The award will help Young Professionals Affinity Groups in its membership development by member's satisfaction. The award will be conferred annually for one best Young Professional Affinity Group who have done substantial contributions to its members.

Purpose

The purpose of this award is to recognize the achievements and activities of one best outstanding Young Professionals Affinity Group in Region 10. This recognition will motivate the winners to do even better and serve as examples for others to follow.

Scope

Based on the merit of each nomination, the Region 10 Young Professionals Awards Committee will select one winner for the prevailing contest year. If no Young Professionals Affinity Group is found to be suitable, no award will be given in the contest year.

Eligibility

- Only Young Professionals Affinity Groups of IEEE Region 10 are eligible to apply.
- The Young Professionals Affinity Group will not be eligible to receive this award twice within five years.
- The Young Professionals Affinity Group must have reported at least four activities for its members, between January - December of previous year, which includes (and not limited to), social/online events, professional talks, technical talks, administrative meetings, etc.
- The activity mentioned will be considered only if it is reported in the official reporting system, vTools Events.

R10 Life Member Outstanding Volunteer Award

Introduction

IEEE Region 10 (R10) encourages Life Members to remain active in IEEE activities (Life Members are those whose age plus IEEE membership equals to 100 or more).

The award is to recognize contributions of R10 LMs to R10 related activities in various OUs (Region, Council, Section, Chapter, Affinity Group, MGA etc.) as Life members.

To accord recognition to such dedicated & talented Life Members, IEEE Region 10 has launched the R 10 Outstanding Life Member Award to keep these members motivated. It recognises Life Members who have made substantial contribution to R10 activities including those in Region, Council, Section, Chapter, Affinity Group MGA etc.) and continue to do so even now.

The award will be conferred upon one Life Member each year.

If evaluation committee finds more than one outstanding LM during any year, Committee may consider a runner up that year & Award a Certificate.

Purpose

The Region 10 Outstanding Life Member Award aims to encourage the active Life Members and contributions of individuals at Section / Council / Region / MGA level.

Scope

Based on the overall assessment of the nominated individual, R10 Outstanding Life Member Award Committee will select the winner(s) each year. If no candidate is found to be suitable in any year, no award will be given in that category for the contest year.
